

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MICHAEL BEHM

Vancouver, BC: Michael Behm has been nominated for the British Columbia Country Music Association (BCCMA) SoCan Songwriter of the Year Award as writer/producer of Family Matters along with writers Angela Harris and Nat Jay.

Oprah Winfrey's Music Supervisor, Dave Trotter, has hailed the track, raving:

"That is a great song, I mean GREAT! I would put that and 100 like it in my collection. Seldom do I get blown away."

Join Michael at the 2011 BCCMA Award Shows and Conference Weekend on Saturday, November 19, 2011 at the Red Robinson Show Theatre, 2080 United Boulevard, Coquitlam, British Columbia.

Versatile, dynamic, prolific—Michael Behm is a music industry impresario. Based in British Columbia but global in popularity, Michael's diverse entrepreneurial success includes music composition, writing and production; nightclub management, direction for one of the largest sound and lighting companies in Canada and concert promotion for major acts such as Nickelback and Nazareth.

With nearly 400 TV music placements for networks and shows ranging from American Idol, MTV, UK CBS, Speed, VH1 to Discovery Channel, MTV, TLC and The Food Network, Michael is something of a music licensing genius. He currently works as producer of his own critically acclaimed music while producing other artists at his premier home-based studio. He regularly traverses Nashville, Los Angeles and Vancouver as a prominent renaissance man of the modern era.

Web Contact Facebook Myspace Twitter
Jango ReverbNation Number One Music